Deer Creek Golf Club

The Deer Creek Golf Club in Deerfield Beach, Florida is the winter home to the Roland Stafford Golf School. Practice your short game, see yourself on video, and apply your newly acquired skills to the championship golf course designed by Arthur Hills, one of South Florida's best. This superbly maintained golf course with its rolling hills, TifEagle greens and four sets of tees, from 5335 yards on the forward tees to 7038 on the back tees, creates a challenge for all golfing abilities. The 30,000 square foot Key West-style clubhouse is lined with wide verandas for breathtaking views onto the golf course where you can enjoy food and beverage at The Deer Creek Grille restaurant and lounge.

Visit the fully stocked golf shop with name brand sportswear and equipment for your shopping needs. Accommodations for the golf school guests have been arranged with the conveniently located and luxurious Hampton Inn in Deerfield Beach with complimentary morning breakfast, evening receptions Monday through Thursday, swimming pool and a fitness center.
